

This is the only radio my elderly aunt, who loves the commercial free classical music and BBC news, listens to anymore. The instant traffic and weather bulletins are part of her enjoyment. There should be no restrictions on a subscription service such as XM radio.